TELEGRAPHIC SUMMARY.

The New York papers of yesterday all oppose the impeachment of the President. The Tribune says there is nothing to be gained by in such a measure much Mr. Johnson deserves it. The Herald says the President has been guilty of nothing more than his partisan predecessors, from Jackson down. The Times says the charges amount to nothing more than what has been repeatedly stated on the floor of the House, and believes the Senate will throw them out.

A confidence man claiming the name of Osterhout who sent General Spinner a check for three hundred dollars conscience money, proves to be a swindler. His check proved worthless. General Spinner's detectives are after him, and say that they will make him pay the three hundred dollars, as by his own confession he swindled the Government.

The Vera Cruz correspondent of the Herald says that Maximilian recently had a narrow escape from guerillas. The Imperialists had bombarded Perote. Cabrales' rebellion in Matamoras was having a disastrous effect on the Juarez cause, as two or three of the Liberal chiefs having declared for Ortega.

The American brig, Sunny South, which sailed from Yokahama, Japan, for Shanghai, on September 10th, is supposed to have been lost in a terrific typhoon off the coast of Japan Captain Patton, wife, daughter, nephew and three passengers were on board. She had $150,000 on board, and was partially insured in the Mutual.

The Supreme Court of New Jersey has decided that the liquor law of that state is not legal.

A train on the Great Falls and New Hampshire railroad was thrown off the track on Monday, and a car, containing thirty-five passengers, was thrown down an embankment, killing the firemen, fatally wounding the engineer, and injuring several of the passengers.

Navigation has been resumed between St. Louis and Keokuk, something unprecedented at this time of year.

The Canadian Confederation bill has been defeated in Prince Edward's Isle by a large majority.

General Walter Harriman has been nominated for Governor by the Union Convention of New Hampshire.

The Ohio Democratic State Convention met yesterday at Columbus. George H. Pendleton was President of the Convention. Judge Allen G. Thurman was nominated for Governor, David S. Uhl for Lieutenant Governor and Thomas M. Key for Supreme Judge.

Both Houses of the Kentucky Legislature have rejected the Constitutional Amendment. The vote in the Senate stood 24 to 7, and in the House 62 to 26.

Leading capitalists of Boston are manifesting great zeal in the organization of the new line of steamships between that port and Liverpool.

In the Massachusetts Legislature, E. G. Walker (colored) was appointed on the Committee on Federal Relations, and Charles L. O Mitchell, (colored) on another committee.

The Democratic State Convention of Connecticut met yesterday, and passed resolutions approving the course of the President and denouncing the action of Congress in excluding the southern Representatives, as a flagrant breach of public faith. Hon. James Brooks, of New York, Ex-Governor Seymour and others spoke. Mr. Brooks said if Congress dared to impeach the President it would result in a civil war, which would not be confined to the other side of the Potomac, but devastation and ruin would be brought to our own homesteads.

GENERAL NEWS.

—The London Builder recommends a plan for lighting a dark room in which the darkness is caused by its being situated on a narrow street or lane. The Builder says if the glass of a window in such a room is placed several inches within the outer face of the wall, as is the general custom in building houses, it will admit very little light, that which it gets being only the reflection from the wall of the opposite houses. If, however, for the window be substituted another in which all the panes of glass are roughly ground on the outside, and flush with the outer wall, the light from the whole of the visible sky and from the remotest parts of the opposite wall will be introduced into the apartment, reflected from the innumerable facets or facets which the rough grinding of the glass has produced. The whole window will appear as if the sky were beyond it, and from every point of this luminous surface light will radiate into all parts of the room.

—A meeting of lawyers has recently been held in Paris, to decide the important question, "Is it incompatible with the dignity of a barrister practising at the bar to be at the same time a member of the Jocky Club?" After much deliberation, and an amount of argument naturally to be expected from an assemblage of men who make argument their chief business, it was decided that such membership was incompatible. Hereafter no law student is to be called to the bar in Paris if it can be proved that he is a member of the Jockey Club.

—In one of the great clubs in Paris there has been a de-perate gambling bout which lasted twelve hours on each of three successive days. The players were a young Russian and a Turkish Grand Seigneur, both very rich. The first night cost the Russian 150,000 francs; the following day he regained 20,000 francs; the following night he again lost the 20,000 francs and 200,000 more. Russia then gave in, and withdrew from the combat with a net loss of 600,000 francs.

—Leonard W. Jerome is said to be the New York broker who recently invited a number of lady friends to his house, and had placed on the plate of each $1,000 as a gift. The husbands of the gifted ladies are very indignant, and some of them have compelled their wives to send the presents back.

—The sale of the stud of the ex-king of Hanover attracted buyers from all parts of Europe. One of the Rothschilds bought the Prince Royal's favorite horse, it is said, to restore it to its former owner. Horses were also purchased for the French Emperor and the King of Denmark.

—A young lady at Berlin committed suicide recently because her betrothed was among the killed at Sadowa. She was playing one of Beethoven's sonatas on the piano, when she suddenly left the instrument, opened a window, and dashed herself on the pavement below.

—The copper mines of Chili, whence the world draws a large portion of its supply of that valuable metal, are said to be of great wealth. The Chililian and adjoining South American coasts, for an extent of 4000 miles, give indications of copper deposits.

LATE NEWS BY TELEGRAPH.

PENNSYLVANIA LEGISLATURE.

[BY THE PACIFIC AND ATLANTIC TELEGRAPH CO.]

Special Dispatch to the Pittsburgh Gazette.

HARRISBURG, January 8, 1867.

SENATE.

Mr. White presented a resolution in reference to bribery in the election of United States Senator, which was postponed. The Senate afterwards concurred in the resolution passed in the House in relation to the matter.

The following are the standing committees appointed by the Speaker: Railroads—Messrs. Landon, of Bradford; Lowry, of Erie, Graham, of Allegheny; Ridgeway, of Philadelphia; Randall, of Schuylkill. Federal Relations—Messrs. Lowry, (chairman.) Finall, Connell, Graham, Worthington, Landon, Wall. Judiciary—Shoemaker, chairman. Corporations—Ridgeway, chairman. Banks—Higham, chairman. Military Affairs—White, chairman.

Mr. Graham read in place an act to construct a sewer from Tremont street, Alleghewy, to the Borough of Manchester; also, an act to authorize the school directors of Sewickley Borough, to collect the balance of bounty taxes; also, an act to repeal the act repealing the charter of the Connellsville Railroad Company.

HOUSE.

Mr. Staumbaugh, of Franklin, called the attention of the House to rumors in circulation in the newspapers, as to corrupt means being used in the election of United States Senator, and offered a resolution, that there be a joint committee appointed to investigate the truth of the charges and report thereon.

The resolution was amended by Mr. Waddell to include all other matters.

The resolution as amended was adopted.

The Governor sent in vetoes of the acts incorporating the Home Insurance Tract and Deposit Companies and National Trust Company of Pittsburgh.

Mr. Mann offered a resolution that both Houses meet on Thursday, the 10th inst., in joint session, to count the votes cast at the last Governor's election.

The House concurred in the bill in relation to the election of United States Senator. This bill provides that in case there is no election on the first day, that both Houses shall meet from day to day during the session, and have at least one ballot.

William H. Kemble and John F. Spangler were nominated for State Treasurer.

Mr. Mann, of Potter, offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That all legislative power being vested in the National Congress, that it is their imperative duty to so legislate that all the loyal citizens of the rebellious States be protected and guaranteed in all their rights.

Mr. Boyle, of Fayette, wished to know if the resolution meant suffrage to negroes.

Mr. Mann answered for himself, and said he was in favor of negro suffrage in the South and in Pennsylvania.

The resolution was adopted by a strict party vote, the Democrats voting in the negative.

The House then adjourned.

The Pope and the King of Italy.

[By the Cable.]

THE ALABAMA CLAIMS.

LONDON, January 8.—Noon.—The Times of today says there is good authority for saying that Sir Frederick Bruce has been told to ask the Government at Washington to accept arbitration in the Alabama claims.

THE REFORM MOVEMENT.

The Daily News announces as unwise the proposed presenting by the people of a great mass of petitions to Parliament regarding reform.

GERMAN PARLIAMENT.

BERLIN, January 8.—The election of members of the new Germanic Parliament takes place February 12th.

FRENCH FLEET IN MEXICO.

PARIS, January 8.—Noon.—The French fleet in Mexican waters is ordered to remain there to collect custom duties.

THE FRENCH IN COREA.

Advices from Corea just received, state that the French burnt the offices and Government houses. All attempts at negotiation failed.

GARIBALDI TO AID THE GREEKS.

FLORENCE, January 8.—It is rumored that Garibaldi will aid the Greek movement, as far as regards Candia, if the revolt lasts a fortnight longer.

THE POPE AND VICTOR EMANUAL.

The Italian Ambassador, Signor Tonetti, has finally settled the questions relative to the future status of religious matters in Rome, under the Italian regime. The Papal Delegate has agreed that hereafter the appointment of Bishops shall be made by His Holiness, the Pope, the said appointments to receive the sanction of the Emperor, and the Government of Italy.

COMMERCIAL AND FINANCIAL.

LONDON, January 8—Evening.—American securities. The market has been slightly easier and quotations closed as follows: Five-Twenties, at 72¾; Illinois Central, at 85¾; Erie, at 45¾. The Money market has ruled steady and slightly firmer to-day. Consols closed to-day, at 91 for money.

FRANKFORT, Jan. 8—Evening.—Closing quotations for Five-Twenties to-day was 76¾.

PARIS, Jan. 8—Evening.—The Bourse has ruled quiet to-day. Three per cent. rates close at 68f. 85c.

The cotton market opened easier and continued very quiet during the day and closed flat. The transactions amount to only eight thousand bales, on the basis of 190d per pound for middling uplands.

The breadstuffs market is generally quiet, except for corn, which is firmer; mixed American is quoted at 42s 6d. Flour is quiet. Wheat remains quiet and unchanged. The market for provisions is quiet and steady.

MANCHESTER, January 8.—The market for cotton goods and yarns is easy.

(By Mail Steamer City of Baltimore.)

MEXICAN MINISTER IN LONDON.

LONDON, December 25.—Mr. Durant, the Mexican Minister in London, has gone to Paris to consult with Almonte as to the policy to pursue in the Mexico imbroglio. The Mexican embassy in London exists no longer. A Mexican Consul General attends to all the business here.

EARL RUSSELL.

Lord John Russell is in Florence, where he attracts great attention. He has not yet abandoned the idea of going to Rome.

PRUSSIA AND HAMBURG.

A Berlin dispatch of the 25th says: The Prussian Government has promised the senate of Hamburg to maintain the freedom of that city until she finds the opportunity to enter the Zolverein.

FRENCH TROOPS IN MEXICO.

PARIS, Dec. 25.—The Patrie of to-day says: "Several foreign newspapers have intimated that the last news, received from Mexico, concerning the indecision of Maximilian would influence the resolution of the French government, as to the bringing back of the French troops. Mexican expedition army corps to France. We again assert that the measures for the evacuation are positive and certain. The execution of these measures is in no way subordinate to the resolutions of the Court of Mexico, and the return of our troops will take place at the appointed time and in conformity with the disposition already taken; a disposition which will remain uninfluenced by the decision of the Emperor of Mexico."

FROM MEXICO.

Another Story About Escobedo—Contradiction of the Last Dispatches—Liberal Successes—Juarez Has the Rise To-Day.

NEW ORLEANS, January 8.—The United States despatch steamer Blackbird brings Brownsville and Matamoras dates to the 5th. General Cortinas has appointed Cortinas Governor of Matamoras. Cortinas has issued a proclamation assuming command.

Ortega has issued a long pronunciamento, setting forth his claims as President of Mexico, and calling on the people to rally to his standard.

The Liberals have re-taken San Luis Potosi, and General Mejia, Imperialist, is falling back to the City of Mexico.

The Ranchero contains a long editorial defending the conduct of General Sedgwick.

THE SENATORSHIP.

Cameron's Nomination Certain.

HE HAS A CLEAR MAJORITY.

Nothing Will Change the Result.

Special dispatch to the Pittsburgh Gazette.

HARRISBURG, Jan. 8th, 1867.

Mr. Cameron has a clear and decided majority of the Republican members of the Legislature, and will be nominated for the United states Senate beyond a doubt. The city is full of political borers from all parts of the State, but it is too late to do anything to defeat Cameron, and he will gain a comparatively easy victory over all opposition. This may be regarded as reliable information. O. C.

The Legislature has appointed a joint committee to investigate the truth of the charges that improper influences have been used to secure the election of the United States Senatorship.

A SENTIMENT FROM "A. J."

Opposition to Speedy Extinction of the National Debt.

THE IMPEACHMENT PROJECT.

Secretary McCulloch's Resignation Would be Acceptable.

RUMOR FROM MEXICO.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8, 1867.

PAYMASTER GENERAL OF THE ARMY.

The President sent into the Senate the nomination of W. B. Brice as Paymaster General, with the rank of Brigadier General.

VETERANS OF 1812.

A delegation of the survivors of the soldiers of 1812 to-day waited upon the Congressional Committee on Pensions, in reference to an increase in their pension allowance. It was a venerable delegation, the youngest being 74 years of age.

SALE OF NEGRO CRIMINALS INTO SLAVERY

The majority of the House was overwhelming on Kasson's bill, making it a felony to sell negroes into servitude, who have been guilty of larceny. This, and the passage of the suffrage bill over the President's veto, makes the Freedmen jubilant.

NATIONAL DEBT.

It is reported that the Banking Committee has resolved to report to the House against the policy of the Secretary of the Treasury, which looks to expediting the extinction of the National debt.

NEW YORK POST OFFICE.

The House Postal Committee decided to report a bill appropriating $500,000 for the purchase of the lower end of the City Hall Park of New York, which is designated by the special Committee as the best site for a post office

MR. ASHLEY SUMMONED TO MAKE GOOD HIS CHARGES.

The House Judiciary Committee have decided to invite Mr. Ashley to appear before them to-morrow, and state his grounds for preferring charges of impeachment against the President.

THE JACKSON ASSOCIATION BANQUET—A SENTIMENT FROM A. J.

The banquet of the Jackson Association commemorating the anniversary of the battle of New Orleans, was given at the National Hotel this evening. The invited guests, one hundred in number, included Democratic members of Congress, a number of Representatives elect from the Southern States, and many other distinguished persons. The venerable Francis P. Blair presided.

President Johnson entered the hall at nine o'clock and was received with the most cordial manifestations, upon which he briefly returned his thanks. Hon. Montgomery Blair offered the health of the President. President Johnson arose and was greeted with loud and continued cheers; he said he declined to make a speech, but would offer this sentiment:

"No State of its will has a right, under the Constitution, to renounce its place in or withdraw from the Union, nor has the Congress of the United States the constitutional power to degrade the people of any State by reducing them to the condition of mere territorial dependency upon the Federal head. The one is disunion and dissolution of the Government; the other is consolidation and the exercise of despotic power. The adoption of either strikes at the genius of the Union and of our constitutional form of government."

This was succeeded by the regular toasts, to which responses were made by Senators Hendricks, Doolittle, and Cowan, and Judge Black, and others. The festivities were continued until a late hour.

OPPOSITION TO IMPEACHMENT.

The pressure against the impeachment project is very great, and remonstrances are pouring in from all quarters, by mail and telegraph. The vote of yesterday is by no means regarded as indicative that the House will support the charges made. On the contrary, the belief is the other way. Several Republicans, who voted to send the project to the Judiciary Committee, have since stated that they did so as the surest and quickest way of getting rid of it.

SECRETARY M'CULLOCH.

Washington specials state that the resignation of the Secretary of the Treasury would be favorably received by the President.

OPINION AS TO IMPEACHMENT.

Leading republican lawyers do not believe that the charges for impeachment can be sustained. The Judiciary Committee holds its first sitting on the subject to-morrow.

A MEXICAN RUMOR.

It is rumored that twelve thousand French troops will remain in Mexico all summer, to aid Maximilian to sustain his Empire.

A NEW BOUNTY BILL.

The House Military Committee will soon report a bounty bill, almost the same as last year.

NO MORE PARDONS AT PRESENT.

In view of the recent action of Congress the Attorney General declines, for the present, entertaining any further applications for pardons from those who participated in the rebellion.

AMOUNT DUE MISSOURI.

The Commissioners for adjusting the claims of Missouri, for equipping and paying militia, report the amount due that State is $7,800,000, less $700,000 due for direct tax.

GOLD IN TREASURY.

The Government holds $31,550,000 in gold.

FROM MISSOURI.

Gov. Fletcher Withdraws from the Senatorial Contest—Drake's Election Conceded—Adoption of Constitutional Amendments.

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 8.—The Democrat's Jefferson City special says: Gov. Fletcher has withdrawn from the Senatorial contest. This removes the only impediment to Drake's election, and probably insures Drake's election, although a strong tide is setting in favor of General Loan, member of Congress in the Seventh District.

The Constitutional Amendment passed the House to-day by 85 to 54.

Col. Montgomery has been arrested on a warrant issued by the U. S. Commissioner at Lexington, appointed under the Civil Rights bill. A habeas corpus has been sued out. On Montgomery's arrival here the matter will be investigated before the United States Court.

THIRTY-NINTH CONGRESS,

(SECOND SESSION.)

WASHINGTON, January 8, 1867.

SENATE.

THE NEBRASKA CONSTITUTION.

Mr. SUMNER presented a petition from certain colored citizens of Massachusetts, praying that Nebraska shall not be admitted while the word white remains in the Constitution.

INCREASED RATIONS TO ARMY OFFICERS.

The memorial of Gen. Hooker and others, was read, asking that the officers on the retired list, be allowed the longevity rations. Referred to the Military Committee.

TARIFF ON WOOL.

Messrs. SHERMAN and HOWE presented petitions from Wool Growers, for an increased tariff on wool.

CONTRACTION OF THE CURRENCY.

Mr. EDMUNDS presented a petition in favor of a contract on of the currency, or the immediate return to specie payments. Referred to the Finance Committee.

EXPENSES OF A COMMITTEE.

Mr. WILLIAMS reported from the Finance Committee, a resolution appropriating $15,000 to defray the expenses of the Joint Committee on Retrenchment, which was passed.

CIVIL RIGHTS LAW.

Mr. WILLIAMS also offered a resolution, which was adopted, asking the President if any violation of the Civil Rights bill had come to his knowledge, and if so what steps had been taken to punish the offenders.

THE PENSION BILL.

Mr. CRAGIN called up the Pension bill, with the House amendments, which was reported back from the Judiciary Committee with other amendments.

Mr. LANE, in explaining the bill, said he was free to confess that one of its objects was to vitiate the offices of men appointed during last summer to take the place of those whom the President has removed.

Mr. HENDRICKS denounced this as partizan. So far as he knew very few changes had been made in Indiana for political reasons. He was opposed to restricting the number of agents to three.

The morning hour having expired, the bill went over till to-morrow.

DISLOYAL MEN IN OFFICE.

Mr. LANE presented a memorial from the Soldiers' and Sailors' Union of Washington, representing that loyal men had been dismissed and their places filled by others who refused to take the test oath of allegiance.

ADMISSION OF NEBRASKA.

The bill for the admission of Nebraska came up, the question being on Mr. Brown's amendment, that the act shall not take effect except upon the fundamental condition that there shall be no denial of the elective franchise on account of color.

Messrs. SUMNER and COWAN spoke against the bill.

Mr. GRIMES spoke in favor of the amendment and of the bill also. He explained the vote he was about to give. He would vote for Mr. Brown's amendment, and if that was adopted he would vote for the bill. He could not vote for the admission of Nebraska with negro suffrage as a condition precedent to her admission, for he had doubts of the fate of such an issue in the Supreme Court. Having voted for negro suffrage in the District of Columbia, and having voted to carry the bill over the President's veto, he was not disposed to abandon that principle.

Messrs. GRIMES and KIRKWOOD discussed the legal effect of the proposed amendment, and were followed by Mr. HOWARD, who opposed it.

Mr. WADE, in replying to a charge of Mr. Sumner, that Nebraska was a rebel State and had a rebel constitution, said it was copied literally from that of Wisconsin, and there were only five Copperheads in the Convention that framed it; and if the Convention was not republican in form, it would be difficult to frame one that was.

A protracted debate ensued, in which Messrs. DIXON, DOOLITTLE, HOWARD, FESSENDEN, and others, participated, when it was agreed that a vote should be had on the question to-morrow, and the Senate then adjourned.

HOUSE.

THE VETO RECEIVED.

A message was received from the Senate, announcing the final passage by that body of the suffrage bill for the District of Columbia.

ANNIVERSARY OF THE BATTLE OF NEW ORLEANS.

Mr. NIBLACK, of Indiana, rising to a question of privilege, said this day was the anniversary of the battle of New Orleans, a day which had generally been observed as a holiday. He therefore moved that the House adjourn. Not agreed to.

THE CHOCTAW INDIAN MASSACRE.

Mr. RANDALL, of Kentucky, introduced a resolution directing the Committee on Indian Affairs to inquire into the facts of the massacre of United States officers and soldiers by Indians, at Fort Phil Kearney, on December 21st, and to inquire whether those Indian outrages are in consequence, or have any excuse or palliation by reason of any Government official or citizens; and, further, to inquire into the expediency of transferring the superintendency of Indian Affairs to the War Department, and to report by bill. Agreed to.

NEGRO SUFFRAGE IN THE DISTRICT.

Mr. WENTWORTH, of Illinois, introduced the following:

WHEREAS, A difference of opinion exists upon the subject of impartial suffrage; and whereas it is legalized only in the District of Columbia, and is to be made a test; therefore

Resolved, That the Committee on the District of Columbia be instructed to inquire into the expediency of providing by law for an immediate election of all officers in said District.

Mr. RANDALL, of Pennsylvania, objected.

MURDER OF FEDERAL SOLDIERS.

Mr. ARNELL, of Tennessee, introduced a resolution, which was agreed to, directing the Committee on the murder of federal soldiers in South Carolina, to inquire into the murder of some soldiers in Tennessee.

ACTION ON THE VETO.

The bill granting impartial suffrage in the District of Columbia was taken up, and on motion of Mr. INGERSOLL, of Illinois, the veto message was read.

The reading of the veto message being concluded, Mr. INGERSOLL demanded the previous question on the consideration of the bill.

The yeas and nays were demanded and the bill passed by a vote of 113 yeas to 38 nays.

SALE OF NEGRO CRIMINALS.

The House considered and passed the joint resolution introduced yesterday, to construe and enforce the Constitutional Amendment, prohibiting slavery.

OTHER BUSINESS.

Several executive documents were read.

Mr. BROOMALL spoke on reconstruction, after which the House adjourned.

FROM NEW YORK.

Proceedings of the Legislature—Resolution in Regard to Admission of Southern Congressmen—The Tax on Banks—Where the Money Went.

NEW YORK, January 8, 1867.

WHAT THE LEGISLATURE IS DOING.

In the Assembly of this State to-day, the bill to repeal the act prohibiting the granting of free passes on the railroads was passed by a large majority.

A bill was introduced looking to the prohibiting of registering and licensing of prostitution; also, a bill to allow criminals to testify in their own behalf in State courts.

Resolutions were introduced, that loyal representatives from southern States ought to be admitted to Congress upon ratification, by the State, of the Constitutional Amendment.

Resolutions were also introduced, that the decision of the United States Supreme Court affirming the legality of the tax imposed upon the stockholders of banks is unconstitutional, disappointment among the majority of the bank officers who anticipated a different result. A number of the banks made forward to-day to pay their proportion of the tax and so stop the interest, which is levied at the rate of 12 per cent.

WHEREABOUTS OF STEPHENS.

NEW YORK, January 8.—The Irish American states positively that Stephens is still in this city, and hints that he will probably attempt to escape to France in the Pertere next Saturday.

FROM CALIFORNIA.

A Change in Business Customs—Nevada U. S. Senator—Internal Revenue Collected in California—Shipments of Treasure from Oregon.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 8.—It is stated that the merchants here are about to abolish the practice of giving credit only from steamer to steamer, and substitute credits of thirty or sixty days.

The Coroner's jury in the case of General Williams, rendered a verdict of death from the accidental discharge of a pistol.

The Carson (Nevada) legislature has elected for principal officers, persons in favor of Charles E. De Long for United States Senator.

The Internal Revenue collected in California last year was over six millions of dollars, over two-thirds of which is from San Francisco.

A Placerville telegram reports that a rich quartz mine was struck near Latrobe, which yielded $40 to the ton.

Wells, Fargo & Co., shipped from Portland, Oregon, last year, nearly four and a half millions of treasure.

Burning of a Hotel.

NORFOLK, VA., January 8.—The Atlantic Hotel, with three stores beneath, and Chamberlain's Banking House adjoining, were consumed by fire this morning. The inmates of the hotel barely escaped with their lives. Many of them were taken from the windows of the burning building by means of ladders. Total loss ninety thousand dollars.

River Telegrams.

ORATORS AND ORATORY.

Free governments breed orators. In popular assemblies the best of them serve a valuable purpose. What the other sort are good for we have failed to discover. It may be safely assumed that where the people govern the discussion of public questions, by able men, in promiscuous assemblies, is of great utility. It is much to have a case fully and fairly stated. It is more to have it defended by relevant and forcible facts and arguments. Perhaps it is of still greater consequence to bring the mass of voters into living contact with superior men, fired with great themes and transfused with their spirit. What advantage there is in the prolixity of drivelers or the extravagances of montebanks surpasses comprehension.

In deliberative assemblies orators, even the best, are practically at a discount. They are measurably, if not altogether, out of their appropriate spheres. Free governments are necessarily controlled by political parties, and hence in Parliaments and Congresses, the highest gifts of eloquence are almost superfluous. There is no jury of disinterested persons to address, unless idlers in the galleries may be accounted such. On the floor, and potential in deciding each particular case, are the parties opposed to each other. What they will respectively do, is not at all decided by the speeches they make, or to which they listen, but by primary, State and National conventions and by legislative caucusses. DANIEL WEBSTER, the sublimest of American orators, left comparatively slight impressions on the course of national policy, as indicated by the statute books. What, then, can talkers of less wisdom and fervor hope to accomplish in halls of legislation?

Where laws are made one man, who thoroughly comprehends a class of questions, and is fertile in the resources of genuine statesmanship, is worth more than all the orators that ever existed. Perceiving what ought to be done, he knows how to do it, and makes his power felt. He may not delight the ears of Congress, nor fill pages of the newspapers with solid or gorgeous utterances; but in the Committee Rooms, where laws are conceived and matured; where policies are framed and consolidated; and on the floor where business is dispatched; he finds congenial fields and is surpassingly useful.

One of the chief infelicities of this country is that so many fluent talkers get into Congress, and so few men with practical knowledge of affairs. It would be a public blessing if at least one-half of the members of the two Houses could be struck so dumb as to be unable to make a speech occupying more than five minutes, or to repeat the operation more than once a week. What an economy of paper and ink and patience such a benevolent dispensation would produce. Editors and readers would alike have occasion to rejoice and be exceeding glad. And then the public business would be done more expeditously, and with greater wisdom. Oh! for a Congress composed of business men who are not speech-makers by trade.

IRON AND ITS MANUFACTURE.

According to the report of the Secretary of the Treasury there were imported into the United States, during the last fiscal year, iron and manufactures of iron, as follows:

Pig	$ 1,663,565
Bar	2,502,384
Railroad	2,035,518
Rolled, sheet, &c	1,417,008
Old scrap	253,414
Manufactures of Iron	2,607,228
	$11,227,717
Re-shipped	274,156
	$10,953,571

This is a large total. Excluding all manufactures of iron, even the rudest, the amount of the import stands at $8,544,333. All of this iron ought to have been produced in this country, and would have if the degree of Protection afforded by the existing tariff was anything like as large as the advocates of Free Trade allege. Yet it must be confessed that the amount imported bears only a small proportion to the aggregate used in the country. It is certainly enough to hold prices in check, and prevent combinations against consumers, but not enough, if the labor market was settled on a specie basis, to seriously incommode the domestic producer. True, in adjusting impost and exctse duties, care should be taken to make them fairly relative to each other, and to those general and special considerations which determine the scale of wages in ordinary employments. But the more we reflect upon the subject the more absolute becomes our conviction that a quick return to specie payments is indispensible to the prosperity of manufacturing interests. There seems to be no probability of arriving at satisfactory conclusions by other methods. Until a specie basis shall be reached, business will necessarily be precarious, and common prudence demands each individual, firm, or corporation, that transactions be kept within moderate limits, and with the least possible accumulation of stocks.

INCREASE OF CRIME.

The criminal statistics of the different States, for the past year, so far as they have been published, bear uniform and startling testimony to the increase of offences against the penal codes. In New York the number of convicts in the State prison has increased by nine hundred and fifteen. In Illinois the number of criminals has doubled in two years. In all the other States the ratio of increase has been substantially the same.

This may be taken in large part as one of the evils brought upon the nation by the war recently closed. War is violence. It arouses and stimulates the worst passions of all who are concerned in it, and of all who witness it. The war for the preservation of the Union was one of the most righteous ever waged. Most of the men who took part therein, or gave it support, did so under the inspiration of the loftiest motives. But the work they had to perform was on that account none the less repulsive. The nobleness of many natures gave way under the pressure, and vice and crime are the consequences.

THE prominent citizens of Montgomery, Ala., openly denounce President Johnson as a political trimmer, without principle, who has promised the rebels (themselves) more than he could perform. They think the South committed a great blunder in hanging to the shirts of A. J., and go in now for Congress and the Constitutional Amendment.

THE GLASS TRADE.

During the last fiscal year there was imported into the United States, cylinder window glass to the value of $571,489; plate glass to the value of $918,895; and glassware of all sorts, including bottles filled with various commodities, to the value of $1,020,587—making a total of $2,510,969. Of this aggregate $10,644 worth was re-exported. During the same period, glass and glassware, the manufacture of this country, was exported, to the value of $621,891.

It will be seen, therefore, that the foreign competition to which the domestic manufacturers of cylinder window glass were subjected, was not large, being only something over half a million of dollars. We maintain that from even this competition the domestic producers ought to be delivered; but if such deliverance should be promptly extended to them, it would not relieve the greater evils under which they are suffering. The market will not take all the glass the existing establishments can turn out at rates to remunerate for producing it. Paper inflation and the excise duties have carried up the cost of production above the point at which market prices can be sustained. More paper money, to be followed by demands for larger nominal wages, and advaneed rates for raw material, entering into the manufacture of glass, would not relieve this difficulty. Wages must necessarily be graduated, after a rude and imperfect fashion, to the inflation or contraction of the currency, and this is a disturbing element in the calculation of all employers. So long as the currency continues to subside towards a specie basis, all commodities experience a corresponding decline. But labor maintains, or seeks to maintain, the highest rates of compensation. In this condition of affairs the only safety consists in manufacturing no faster than is needful to supply actual orders.

HOW IS IT?

According to the late report of the Secretary of the Treasury, the aggregate value of "paper and stationery" manufactured in the United States last year was only $549,633. Single printing establishments paid more than that sum for paper. So, the total production of iron is put down at $507,800; and all manufactures of iron and steel at $3,213,381. Glass and glassware is represented at $621,391. Leather is sunk to $305,857; much below the product of single tanneries. There is one advantage in such tables, they mislead no one. But they cause men of sense to marvel that the Treasery Department should be so stupid as to publish them, hoping to enlighten the people as to the magnitude of manufacturing.

THE great majorities of suits brought against the citizens of Alabama, for the collection of old debts, are by home creditors, not from northern ones. In that State the great mass of the people are kept in blissful ignorance of the affairs of the country, all of the journals being controlled and edited by men who can only see national politics from a bigoted southern stand point.

COE'S DYSPEPSIA CURE is prepared by the originator of the justly celebrated Cough Balsam. Mr. Coe has at last prepared a medicinal article for public and general use but what has always been the strongest test, always bore the palm of victory over every disease it has been certified to cure. Will you who are suffering from dyspepsia, indigestion, nausea, headache, cholera morbus, dysentery, and general debility of the whole system, try but a single bottle? We will never urge you to do it if we don't know, from our own knowledge of its merits the united testimony of all who have ever tried it, the encomiums of hundreds of our own neighbors, your duty to yourself, and the beneficial result, as certain as sunshine, all urgently persistently urge you to try just one bottle. If what we say is not correct—if our statements concerning its wonderful virtues are not found to be true—if you do not say that the operation of the medicine is instantaneous and perfectly comfortable—we will renounce our profession as caterers to the public health, and retire from the field, admitting that we are incompetent to compound a medicinal preparation which would be enabled to your consciences.

THE TRUTH ABOUT DYSPEPSIA.—Whoever says that Dyspepsia is incurable, tells a—that is to say, makes an egregious mistake. More than ten thousand aggravated cases have been cured by HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS, while the number that have been prevented from coming to a head, by the same means, is incalculable. In Winter and early Spring, when the appetite is sometimes too vigorous for the comfort and safety of the stomach, indigestion is most prevalent and most distressing. Is the appetite to be balked to accommodate the digestive organs? Not so; for then the frame would lack its due proportion of nutriment. The thing to be done is to STRENGTHEN THE STOMACH, tone the liver, and put the bowels in perfect order. Nothing will do this so effectually, so rapidly, so quietly so pleasantly, as HOSTETTER'S BITTERS. This potent preparation trims and balances the system, and clothes it, as it were, with defensive armor. Chronic dyspepsia, liver complaint, and fever and ague are never known to attack those who are wise enough to invoke the aid of this great preventive.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC.

CAPITAL PRIZE, $30,000.
KELLY'S
Grand North American Prize Concert.
Read what the Chicago Press Say:
[From Chicago Times.]
NORTH AMERICAN PRIZE CONCERT.—Among the first gifts of the season ever commenced in Chicago was that of Messrs. A. A. Kelley & Co., which has been perpetual for more than three years past, and has given the most perfect satisfaction. If we are to judge by the extensive patronage accorded it. They are the proprietors of the "North American Prize Concert" which is now in active advertising in this and other papers, and endorsed by some of the best business firms in this country. From what we know of Mr. Kelley, we feel positive that he will, in the future as in the past, deal fairly and honorably with all who take hold in his enterprise.
[From the Chicago Journal.
KELLEY & CO.'S GIFT ENTERPRISE.—The first to embark in the gift enterprise business in Chicago was the firm of A. A. Kelley & Co., located at 105 Randolph street. Who does not remember their offers, which opened two or three years ago, where many purchased books and other articles, and were so lucky as to find with their purchases tickets which entitled them to valuable gifts of Jewelry or other prizes? Thousands of our citizens were thus fortunate, and the fact have the best evidences that Messrs. Kelley & Co. always perform all they promise; that they are honorable men and do business honorably and on the square.
Time fixed to Award the Premium, and the CONCERT to be given at the Wabash Avenue Rink, Chicago, Illinois.
SATURDAY, JANUARY 26, 1867.
This is the Greatest Distribution of the Nineteenth century, and most successful enterprise of the kind ever inaugurated in the world. $50,000 CAPITAL PRIZES, valued at HALF A MILLION DOLLARS, including $100,000 IN GREENBACKS.
Will be given to ticket holders.
A SPECIAL NOTICE TO THE PEOPLE.
The proprietors of this grand enterprise have great pleasure in being able to inform the subscribers to their Concert that it is on an assured success. Out of 5,000 tickets issued, only 2,000 remain unsold. The proprietors do not wish to hold a single ticket when the concert takes place, as it might cause dissatisfaction among our patrons, and there are have been compelled to extend the time to JANUARY 26th, 1867, when it will positively take place without any further postponement.
For 10 years we have been engaged in the gift business, and we point with pride to the reputation we have won for honesty and integrity. Many of the prominent citizens of Chicago will bear witness to the efforts that we have never made any promises to the public that we have not sacredly fulfilled, and we refer to the leading bankers and merchants of New York, Philadelphia, Boston and Chicago for our character for fair dealing.
In order that all opponents of every enterprise, we shall prove to the public that the North American Prize Concert will be conducted honorably, and all the prizes advertised will be distributed fairly, impartially and without reserve.
The plan of drawing adopted is the following—Duplicate numbers from 1 to 500,000 are placed in a wheel; the first number drawn out takes the highest prize, he next the second highest prize, and so on until the whole 250,000 prizes are drawn.
We advise all parties wanting tickets to send for them at once. All orders for tickets will be promptly filled.
Number of Tickets Issued 500,000.
PRICE, $1.00 EACH.
Every Other Ticket Draws a Prize.

Price of tickets, $1 each. Sent by mail on receipt of price and a cent stamp for return postage.
Every Other Ticket Draws a Prize.
SPECIAL TERMS OR CLUB RATES.
Any party procuring a club of five or more names for tickets, and sending us the money for the same, will be allowed the following commission. We will send

5 tickets to one address for	$ 4 50
10 tickets to one address for	9 00
20 tickets to one address for	18 00

Send the name of each subscriber as his Post Office address, with town, county and State in full. Money by draft, Post office order, express, or in registered letters, may be sent at our risk.
Every Other Ticket Draws a Prize.—The citizens of Chicago who know A. A. Kelley & Co., have confidence in their honor and integrity, and are largely investing in their enterprise.
These are some of the reasons why we feel safe in recommending Kelley & Co.'s Gift Concert to the public.

GAZETTE ENLARGEMENT.

The great amount of advertising awarded the GAZETTE by the business community has forced upon us the urgent necessity of an enlargement of the size of our journal. We at first contemplated issuing a quarto paper, but upon consultation with the proprietors of such journals elsewhere we were dissuaded from adopting that form, feeling that the interests of our advertisers would suffer, while readers would be but slightly benefited. After much study into the matter we have concluded to retain the present form of the GAZETTE, but will add four columns to its size, making THIRTY-SIX COLUMNS OF SPACE. By this arrangement we will be enabled to do full justice to both readers and advertisers, making all pages of our journal equally valuable to the latter, and furnishing more reading matter to the former. In our new size we shall make our bow to the public about the 15th inst., and trust the general community will appreciate our efforts to supply a first-class advertising medium and local and political newspaper.

Seasonable Fashions.

What city is more fashionable than Pittsburgh? None. The fair dames and damsels of the smoky town, when not engaged in showing the fashions, are engaged in hunting them up. That we may assist them in their quest we publish the following from the Boston Commercial Bulletin as the latest report of the newest Eastern styles:

The following are the latest fashions for ladies, which will be universally adopted, owing to their admirable adaptation to the season and the climate of this latitude:

Winter Bonnets.—The latest style consists of a posture stamp with strings of green ribbon; the hair is carefully combed back, so as to give the air uninterrupted access to the roots, and the ears and neck. This style is highly recommended by physicians. A box of Shethahs Neuralgic Ointment accompanies each bonnet.

Shirt.—The new hoop skirt (also recommended by physicians,) commences expanding under the arms—excellent article for skating and sleigh rides. A bottle of Kuhleg's Rheumatic Lotion sold with each skirt.

Trains.—Crinoline is to be discarded, and trains from one half to two yards in length, will be worn. In view of this fact, the city government have discharged the regular street sweepers, and their places will be filled by female volunteers.

Fast ladies will wear rail-road trains.

Steady young ladies, of even temperament, who are not subject to a tight rein, will wear a tie train.

The wives of retired editors will wear the express train.

The color for elderly ladies will render it necessary that theirs should be of large size, as it will be a grey train (great train.)

There are getting to be more points to a ladies' dress than her conversation. The point at which they arrive at with but little difficulty, except to their husbands, is point lace. Most ladies, however, have an eye to the great waste when they are very snug with the lace.

Supreme Court Decisions.

The Supreme Court of Pennsylvania, now sitting at Philadelphia, has just decided a number of western cases, as follows: Lyon vs Lewis' Executors, Allegheny; reversed. McGrew vs. Stone, Allegheny; reversed, and ven. in de novo awarded. Pittsburth, Ft. Wayne and Chicago Railroad Company vs. Evens, Allegheny; reversed. The following were affirmed: Pennsylvania Railroad Company vs. Allen, Erie; Musgrave vs. Benkendorf; Mellon vs. Cochran; Holmes' Appeal; Schmertz and Bleakley vs. Dwyer; Greer vs. Stinson; and Dilworth, Porter will case; Insurance Company vs. McLaughlin; Corbett vs. Lewis; Krentz vs. McKnight, and Peters Creek Oil Company vs. Ross, Allegheny county.

We learn by telegraph, that the important case of Funk vs. Haldeman, which was argued before the Supreme Court, at its session in this city last fall, was decided yesterday. This case involved the title of the Dalzell and many other oil companies to the land on which their operations were conducted; and the unanimous decision of the supreme Court confirms them in their title. This decision is of uncommon interest to many of our leading oil operators.

Poetical.

In one of his able articles on the Erie Conference boundaries, the Rev. E. A. Caruthers thus poetically speaks of Northwestern Pennsylvania: "The Shenango Valley cannot be excelled, and what we have seen of the Lake Shore is as the garden of Eden. Our villages, too, are neither few nor insignificant. Erie is a city of no mean proportions; Meadville has grown as if touched by a magic wand; Newcastle puts on the gem of Pittsburgh, and sits upon her miniature rivers in iron grandeur, her brow encircled by the smoke of her unlying fires; West Middlesex, Westfield, Sharon, and Sharpsburg, have no need of the moon nor of the stars, for the source of their wealth is a lamp to their steps; Greenville, Mercer, Corry and Franklin are great railroad centres; while God's great earth hole has been tapped upon the back among the hills of Venango, making our streams rivers of oil."

Monongahela Slackwater.

The borough council of Morgantown, W. Va., has appointed Wednesday, January 9th, as the day upon which the sense of the free holders of the town shall be taken by ballot, on the question whether or not the council shall subscribe twenty thousand dollars to the capital stock of the Marion and Monongahela Slackwater Navigation Company. The citizens of Morgantown are greatly in favor of the proposed slackwater improvement, and the vote, it is anticipated, will be almost unanimous in favor of the subscription. The town would be greatly benefitted by the improvement.

Railroad Experiment.—During the last few weeks both the Baltimore and Onio and Pennsylvania Central Railroads have been trying the experiment of running trains for first-class freight on passenger time. They have succeeded in running these through from Baltimore to Cincinnati in thirty-two hours, and from Philadelphia to Cincinnati in thirty-eight hours, which is considerably ahead of the time made by the fast freight companies between these cities. Of course, the object is to do away with the necessity for these and the express companies which now run over those routes, since even the latter will have no advantage over these new freight trains on the score of connection with the passenger cars.

Changed Proprietors.—The Girard House, Girard, Pa., has changed proprietors, and is now conducted by Jay T. Kimball, Esq., and under his management guests will be accommodated in good style.

Bishop Bowman Institute.

Monday was a happy day in the history of Bishop Bowman Institute, for it was the day of its installation into its new home. Such of its friends as are familiar with the labor and self-denial attendant upon its beginning, the costs of its progress, and the uncertainty, at one time, of its existence, will be glad to know of this great result, and its promise of final stability and permanence. A name, and that a most excellent one, it has always had; now, it has also a local habitation, while itself is no airy nothing, built up by puffs and blowing, but is true to its title, being in every way an "Institute" worthy of the memory of the saintly man whose name it bears, and thoroughly adapted to the education of young ladies. It has not yet such a home as it ought to have, but by contrast with the shifts that they have been compelled to put up with, teachers and pupils may well be glad and comfortable as they are. The house thus occupied is on Grant street, No. 62, in the cleanest and most quiet part of the city, with the East Liberty cars passing by the front door, and the other roads within a few minutes walk. It is large, airy, and well lighted, is fitted up with perfect neatness, and enjoys the privilege of a fine lot for play, and a building for a gymnasium, being just such a home as will tend to the profit and culture of its inmates. These advantages, added to the admirable efficiency of the instructors, give the institute a standing as high as any of its kind, and challenge extensive patronage.

The services at the Institute were performed by Bishop Kerfoot. A Scripture lesson was read by Rev. W. P. Ten Brocck, and addresses were delivered by Bishop, Dr. Preston and Mr. King. They were thoroughly practical in tone and tenor, and alluded very kindly to the absent laborer who had built up the Institute and left it in its present, especially to one who fell a victim to over constancy and zeal, and has left a fragrant memory as her best contribution to the work she loved so well.

So was the new home solemnly set apart for its great object, and the success of the Bishop Bowman Institute was fixed beyond all venture, if an eligible and central location, an efficient corps of instructors, the prestige of past usefulness, the co-operation of earnest friends, and the invocation of God's blessing can secure success.

Rough Robbery.—One night last week two ruffians entered the room of Mr. W. Barrett, in the county of Carroll, Ohio, a minister, chloroform, tied him hand and foot, gagged him, with the round of a chair in his mouth, then robbed him of $6,50, and left. He was found next morning he was more dead than alive. Two thousand dollars have been offered for the arrest of the thieves and the recovery of the money.

Distressing Suicide.—We learn that a Mr. Cheatwood, from Lewis county, West Virginia, committed suicide at Bonsack's, in Roanoke county, on Monday morning last, by cutting his throat with a razor from ear to ear, death ensuing almost instantly. It occurred was on a visit to his brother, who has resided for a great while at Bonsack's, and whom he had not seen for twenty years. He was a man of family.

Acquitted.—The Fairmont, (W. V.) Vidette says: Peter B. Righter, who was charged with killing a soldier named Jacob Sharp, about the beginning of the war, was acquitted by a Harrison county jury week bef re last. It will be remembered that Righter was indicted in this county, but fearing that justice would be done by a Marion county jury, he succeeded in getting his trial removed to Harrison county.

Still Living.—John Devinger, the colored boy who had his head split open with a hatchet, at Titusville, on Tuesday last, is still alive, though there are but small hopes of his recovery. Brown, the negro who attacked him will probably be put where he cannot commit any more mischief for several years at least.

Nearly Completed.—The track of the Jamestown and Franklin Railroad is nearly completed to French creek, within five miles of Franklin borough. The grading is completed along the whole route. When this road is finished, cars will run through from Pittsburgh via New Castle to Franklin.

Needed Improvement.—The Erie Dispatch calls for improvement as follows: A system of letter delivery by carriers is sadly needed in Erie. There is no other city in the Union of the same size and commercial importance, destitute of this most necessary convenience.

Copper Found.—Copper ore has been found on the Conneguenessing creek, in Wayne township, Specimens, equaling the purest of the Lake Superior ore, have been exhibited, but the discoverer declines to point out the exact locality of the concealed treasures.

Acquitted.—Catherine Brown, held for the murder of a man named Carpen ef, with whom she had been living, and who died from the supposed effects of a kicking she gave him, was tried at Newcastle, and acquitted on Friday last.

HARDICK'S

Patent Double-Acting

STEAM PUMP

AND

FIRE ENGINE,

FOR PUMPING

WATER, CRUDE AND REFINED OIL

This Pump combines all the advantages of other styles of Pumps now in the market, with none of their defects. The Patent Steam-Valve applied to this Pump enables it to start at any point of stroke by simply opening the Valve in the Steam-Pipe, and the Pump is sure to start at once without the use of a starting-bar, or the annoyance of pulling a fly wheel around to get it off the centre. For Mining purposes this Pump is peculiarly adapted, as the Valves can be removed by unscrewing one nut, and the Valve-Chest cleaned in a few minutes. As the Pump is staple in its whole construction, it does not require the neighborhood of a machine shop to keep it in working order. The Valve-Chest and Valves are made of brass or composition, and can be easily replaced or replaced when worn out. Its capacity is unlimited, as in a few minutes, of some additional horse-power, it can be made to run at any speed, either slow or fast, to suit the work it has to perform. The undersigned respectfully solicit the attention of their numerous customers and the public in general to the merits of this Pump, and desire those wishing such an article to call on

NO CHANGE OF DIET IS NECESSARY. They can be used without detention, and never fail to effect a cure, if used according to instructions.

BELL'S SPECIFIC PILLS,

Price one dollar per box, or six boxes for five dollars; also, large boxes, containing four small. Price three dollars.

From four to six boxes are generally required to cure ordinary cases of seminal Weakness and Emissions, though benefit is derived from using a single box.

In Chronic Cases, and particularly when Impotence or Genital Debility with Nervous Prostration has affected the spinal cord,

BELL'S TONIC PILLS

Are recommended as the most efficacious regenerating and invigorating remedy in the world.

A package, price five dollars, will last a month, and is generally sufficient.

In extreme cases of Debility and Impotence,

Bell's External Remedy,

Price two dollars, sufficient for a month, can be used to good advantage.

It gives strength to the organs, and with the Pills will restore them to their normal condition.

CAUTION.—The above Remedies have now been before the public many years, and their great success in the alleviation of human woe has called forth the cupidity of several parties, who use the names, Bell's Specific Pills, Bell's External Remedy, and advertisements, sometimes word for word, and put up worthless compounds that disappoint the just expectations of the purchaser.

If you cannot purchase Bell's Specific Remedies of your Druggist, take no other, but send the money direct to

DR. JAMES BRYAN,

CITY AND SUBURBAN.

LOCAL NEWS ON FIRST AND THIRD PAGES.

Court of Quarter Sessions.

This Court assembled on Tuesday, at nine A. M., Judge Stowe on the bench, and disposed of the following cases:

COSTS DIVIDED.

In the case of Conrad Schlagle, indicted for an assault and battery upon Mrs. Muller, the jury returned a verdict of not guilty, each party to pay one-half the costs.

SUNDAY LIQUOR SELLING.

John Lang, of the Fourth ward, Allegheny city, was tried for selling liquor on Sunday, but the evidence not justifying a conviction, the jury found a verdict of not guilty, and directed that the county pay the costs.

A WIFE BEATER.

John Koehnlise, of Birmingham, was convicted on an indictment charging him with having committed an assault and battery on his wife, and sentenced him to pay a fine of ten dollars and to undergo ten days' imprisonment in the jail.

STOPPING A WATER COURSE.

Samuel Stephenson was next placed on trial for malicious mischief, alleged to consist in his putting grave in the pump log of Mrs. Catherine Kalb. The parties reside in Manchester. The offense was alleged to have been committed in the night time, the prosecutrix testifying that she observed defendant in the act. The defense was mainly upon a question of identity, it being argued that Mrs. Kalb was mistaken.

PORCINE.

The next case was that of Thomas Murphy, placed on trial for the larceny of a pig. The defendant's wife accompanied him into Court. They are Italian people, residing in the vicinity of the Point. The prosecutor testified that he missed a pig, valued at fifteen dollars, and found it in the possession of defendant, who had it penned up in his yard. Upon making known the fact that the pig was his (prosecutor's) property, he was ordered from the premises, defendant claiming the pig as his, avowing that he had raised it. The case occupied considerable time, and occasioned much merriment, owing to many ludicrous observations by counsel and witnesses, provoked by the nature of the case. Mrs. Murphy, wife of defendant, (who was concerned in a dispute about an "intilligent pig" some years ago,) contributed to the general felicity by frequent interruptions as the case proceeded. Following is the legal record:

Commonwealth vs. Patrick Murphy. In certis. Quar. Sess. No. 224. Indictment, larceny. Plea Non cul et de hoc. Com. Similitur and issue, &c.

Commonwealth per Kirkpatrick: The question at issue is one of identity and title; the facts proved show the pig in our possession; title follows possession of personalty; pig was in our sty; (here prisoner's wife cried out "All in my eye,") in our stock, a striped pig, but one with a swirl on its rump.

Pe Curtra Moore: Prosecutor says he had title by reason of a written pact, but refuses to make protest thereof in open Court. We oppose, therefore, to testimony of prosecutor as not being the best evidence; (objection overruled per Curiam.) Further objection. That Allegata and Probata did not agree—verdict charged in the indictment as a hog—proof that it was a pig; question of law for the court whether "hog" is generic and includes pigs. We think not, as "hog" conveys the idea of a "whole hog." Pig is not a "whole hog," therefore not the thing charged in the indictment.

Kirk per Cos: Pig is Irish for hog, therefore means hog when spoken of by Irish witness. Pig, being an untrapped hog, is incipient hog, hog in the future; then, as in equity, "what ought to be, will be regarded as being." we must for the purposes of this prosecution regard it as hog.

Per Curiam. Curia adversari vult: This point being according to 1st Bacon, a little hoglely piglely po lite jury to pronounce.

Moore pro Prisoner: Gentlemen of the jury, by the lamp of experience, fed with lard oil, we have learned that you can't make a silk purse out of a sow's ear, or a whistle of a pig's tail. So here you can't convict my client of the larceny of a pig, when he is charged with that of a hog.

Kirk pro Commonwealth: Gentlemen of the jury, prisoner can't save his bacon by presenting his case bristling with legal points. We are back of the devil going back of the devil into the swine; in this case, according to law, he must have gone into Murphy, as the indictment charges him with being moved and instigated by the devil. If so, your verdict must be guilty—locosium elopinagium.

Per Curiam—Gentlemen: The counsel on both sides have omitted the true point in this case. This is a case of bailment, and comes under the title "pignori." The pig in this case was rescued by Murphy and fed by him without pay. It is, therefore, pignus quo ad hog, and the subject of a civil suit. However, gentlemen, the facts are for you. You must root into them, and digest them for your resolves, and if them so digested, give the result by a verdict. Swear a constable.

Jury—Verdict for pig.

Motion for new trial and arrest of judgment, for the reason that the verdict is uncertain.

P. S.—The jury acquitted the prisoner.

STEALING CORN.

Phillip and George Fein, father and son, were tried for the larceny of forty bushels of corn, the property of William Schaum, in October last. The defendant, William Fein, owned a field of corn, which was levied upon under an execution, sold, and purchased by the prosecutor, and notice to that effect given. Subsequently the corn was topped, and finally carried off by the defendants, as alleged. The defense was that the corn was owned by the younger Fein, George, and not by the elder, Phillip, and that the latter assisted the former in carrying away his own property. Verdict not guilty.

SELLING LIQUOR.

Patrick Murphy was tried for selling liquor without license. It appears that he does not keep a regular tavern, if at all, and that he secures his supply of "tanglefoot" by the demijohn. No verdict.

The Soldiers' Monument—Meeting of the Allegheny Monument Association—Arrangements for the Proposed Fair.

The members of the Allegheny County Monument Association met in the Fireman's Association Rooms yesterday afternoon, General A. L. Pearson in the chair. In the absence of the Secretary, Miss Percilla Verner was appointed Secretary pro tem.

The chairman announced that the first business in order would be the hearing of the reports from the various churches. The following churches have so far concluded to have tables at the festival Fair: Christ's M. E. Church, Presbyterian Church, Second Presbyterian Church, Third Presbyterian Church, Sixth Presbyterian Church, Manchester Presbyterian Church, Central Presbyterian Church, St. Peter's Episcopal Church, Fly South Congregational Church.

On motion the following Executive Committee was appointed:

President, Gen. Jas. S. Negley; Secretary, Horace Snowden; Members, Mrs. Julia Watt, Mrs. L. A. Robison, Mrs. Gen. A. L. Pearson, Mrs. Dr. Cose, Miss Howard, Mrs. Gen. Buck, Mrs. Adams, Miss Brooks, Mrs. Max Moorhead, Mrs. W. B. Hays, Miss Weyman, Mrs. Frank Bissell, Gen. Jas. S. Negley, Gen. L. Pearson, Col. Thomas Bayne, Rev. Ed. Chastetter, Capt. Dalgeeise, W. P. Weyman, Esq.

On motion of Mrs. John Watt, the Fair was postponed until March 1st to 15th.

On motion of Miss Sue McCord, the Committee went into election for officers, which resulted as follows:

President, Mrs. Samuel McKee; Vice Presidents, Miss Sue McCord, Miss Ellen Murdock, Mrs. R. Robison, Mrs. R. F. Preston; Recording Secretary, Miss Mattie Fowler; Corresponding Secretary, Miss Precilla Verner; Treasurer, Jas. Park, Jr.

The following additions to the Ward Committees were then made:

First Ward—Wm. Shaw, Frank Jones, James O'Connor, L. Foltansbee.

Third Ward—Frank R. Sellers.

Fifth Ward—John Rapp, Wm. Crawford, Joseph Irwin, Thomas Dixon.

Seventh Ward—Gen. Thomas A. Rowley, T. B. McMillan, James Lippincott, James Robb.

Oakland Township—Wm. L. Schmertz, Chas. Clark.

East Liberty—B. L. Fahnestock, Capt. Batchelor.

Braddocks Fields—John Chalfant.

Mansfield—J. K. Morange, —— Cook, Rev. James Grier.

Nothing further being offered, the committee adjourned to meet on Thursday, the 24th inst., at 3 o'clock P. M.

Semi-Annual Meeting of the Pittsburgh Turners.

The semi-annual meeting of the Pittsburgh District of the National American Turners' Association was held at Cleveland on Monday. Delegations were present from Pittsburgh, Allegheny, Wheeling and Johnstown, each of those places, according to the rules of the Association, being entitled to one delegate for every twenty-five members.

The fraternal greeting given by the Cleveland Society to the representatives of the foreign associations was characteristic of German hospitality, and was warmly appreciated by their visitors, as expressed in resolutions subsequently passed, tendering their warmest wishes for the prosperity of Cleveland and, more especially, her industrious, thrifty and intelligent German population.

The meetings in this District have, heretofore, been held semi-annually, but in the future they will be held once a year—the next, or "first annual" convention having been appointed for Johnstown, Pa., Sept. 24, 1867. The officers for the ensuing year were selected from the Pittsburgh society and are as follows:

President—C. F. Bauer.
Secretary—A. Breckbuhy.
Treas.—G. A. Sheurem, C. Schellhart.

The work of moral and physical development was ably discussed by several delegates, and a resolution was passed providing for teachers in various parts of the district upon application to headquarters at Pittsburgh.

Pittsburgh Clearing House.

Clearings amounting to nearly seven hundred thousand dollars, were made on Tuesday at the Pittsburgh Clearing House, a much larger amount than on any previous day since the organization of the Association. This is to be partly accounted for by the fact that on Saturday evening, the national banks in this city and throughout the country, were obliged to make up their quarterly statement, to be submitted to the Comptroller of the Currency. The Pittsburgh Clearing House Association at present includes seventeen national banks in this city, and one banking house. The Fourth National are the only ones who do not redeem their checks through its means. The members of the Association yesterday morning held their regular quarterly meeting, at which business of importance was discussed. On February 1st the Clearing House will have been in operation one year.

Hope Fire Company.

—The annual meeting of the Hope Fire Company, of Allegheny City, was held Monday evening and the following officers elected for the ensuing year:—President, Captain C. L. Braun; Vice President, John Dyer, Jr.; Secretary, Captain W. C. Stephen; Treasurer, C. F. Isenhart; Foreman, J. M. Pratt; First Hose Director, Thos. Hannah; Second do., Samuel Kain; Third do., James Sailsburg; Fourth do., James Gamble; Fifth do., Joseph Quartz; Sixth do., James Taylor; Foreman, C. E. Carey; Engineer, G. H. Bonnafon.

District Court.

TUESDAY, January 8.—Before Judge Hampton.

John Adams and Frederick Blind, partners as Adams & Blind vs. John Christian Lappe. Action for slander. The plaintiffs, tanners, (as also is defendant,) doing business in the vicinity of the city, allege that they had arranged for the delivery to them by Richards & Bracken, of Indiana county, of a railroad freight car load of tan bark, which they were, deprived of, suffering damage and inconvenience in their business, by reason of the statement of defendant to Bracken, one of the firm of Richards & Bracken, that "Adams & Blind (plaintiffs) are broken up, if they only knew it; they are endeavoring to borrow money from everybody, but nobody will lend them any, and if you (Bracken) give them that carload of bark they will never pay you for it." Plaintiffs further alleged that by reason of the non-receipt of the bark referred to, and their inability to procure any for a considerable time, hides in process of tanning, or conversion into leather, were damaged to the extent of one thousand dollars.

The evidence on behalf of plaintiffs having been concluded, Mr. Ewing, counsel for defendant, moved for a non-suit, the proof offered not covering the declaration in the case. Bracken, called as a witness, testified that the defendant referred solely to Adams, not having mentioned Bleind, nor did it appear that the defendant was aware of the existing partnership.

The plaintiffs, as a firm, therefore, could not recover, (not proposing that they had suffered as such. C. B. M. Smith, Esq., for plaintiffs, resisted the motion, and after considerable argument the Court adjourned without a decision having been made.

Signed the Pledge.

Harman Hoffeld, with his family resides on Liberty street, third Ward, Allegheny in a tenement row, with several other families.—On Monday night he went home as usual, in a state of tightness, not compatible with good behavior. The "old Adam" commenced cropping out in various little demonstrations, such as pitching into the wife and children; breaking some of the furniture, and kicking out a window. An officer was called and interfered with the diversions of Hoffeld by gobbling him up, and marching him off to the lock up. In the refinery of that secluded locality, he slept off the stimulus of the night before, and awakened yesterday morning bitterly penitent. He sent beseeching messages to his wife, and when she appeared at the Mayor's office to prosecute the case, she had reached the most forgiving frames, which all wives reach a few hours after getting their husbands into a scrape. She came attended by a neighbor who had been clamorous the night before against the unfortunate Hoffeld, but who was now as pitiful as the wife. The two women were consulted with the object manifest. With a flimsey show of severity, they demanded pledges of him, that he would "behave himself" hereafter. Promises were profuse, and the women told the Mayor that if Harman could be bound in any way to keep sober and orderly hereafter, they would "make it up with him." Harman was sent for. We only so his Honor wrote out a good old-fashioned temperance pledge, the prisoner made his mark at the bottom of it, and the party left to enjoy the tranquility until Harman shall break his pledge and get drunk again.

—The public debt statement for January 1st shows more progress in funding the 7-30s, and a greater reduction in compound notes than has been anticipated. Of the 7-30s, no less than $23,077,150 have passed into long funded debt, and $2,486,300 of compound notes. Of plain legal tenders, $4,944,007 have been retired, leaving the amount outstanding $380,357,842. The steady decrease in legal tenders is the most satisfactory feature in the report, and should not be forgotten by parties trading on borrowed money, and obliged to pay fixed debts from sales of commodities constantly falling in price.

—Says the New York Tribune, of Monday: The struggle of banks to get themselves "in line upon their reserves before swearing to their statements on Monday could not but have considerable influence upon the favor of banks in any large proportion. These institutions have reached a point where contraction in those business lines strengthens themselves they will be obliged to put such pressure upon their dealers as will sensibly contract the balances of credit on private accounts. If such a scramble for legal tender is shown upon a reduction of $19,000,000 in plain legal-tenders, and $10,000,000 in compounds, since October 1st, what may be expected when the compounds pass in funded deots, as they surely must, at or prior to maturity, and the legal-tenders go to swell the figure indicating Congressional action thus far indicates a determination not to increase the legal-tender circulation or to expand the bank currency, and a purpose to force the present law withdrawing four millions of legal-tenders per month. This sum is not so large as the interests of the solvent part of the community could wish to withdraw, but it is rapid enough to bring to grief debtors who have been tempted into extensive contracts upon the faith that legal tenders would be permanent, if not a growing item in the debt statement.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, }
TUESDAY, January 8, 1867. }

The produce markets continue quiet and dull, with but little prospect at present of any immediate improvement. There is but little doing except in a jobbing way, the unsettled condition of all the leading markets, both east and west, having a tendency to retard operations—buyers taking hold very sparingly, and generally speaking, confining their wants to the leading articles of trade are considerably in excess of the demand.

GRAIN—Wheat is steady but unchanged; sales of 1 car No. 1 spring at $2,40; 1 car No. 2 Milwaukee, and 1 car No. 3 opposite Hanging Rock. The latter had steam up. The Fleetwood, St. James and Jonas Powell in mouth of Kanawha.

The Middleport (Ohio) Gazette of the 2d inst. says: The Spray, loaded with cotton, and groceries, and bound for Pittsburgh, has been lying ice-bound at our wharf for several days, waiting for navigation to open. The heavy Allegheny ice is still running, and the prospect is by no means favorable for any definite period. The weather is still cold, and the ground is frozen hard. The H. C. Wilson, at this port, reports the Ohio River gorged here for the winter, or until navigation opens.

RIVER NEWS.

The situation at the levee remains unchanged, the weather continues cold, and the prospects for an early resumption of navigation are by no means encouraging. There was considerable heavy floating ice in the Allegheny River last evening, and it was thought by some that the first gorge above had given way.

The following boats are now lying at the wharf: Yorktown, Robert Moore, Savanna, Silver Lake, Glenbain, Kate Robinson, Columbia No. 2, Sunny South, Fannie Porter, Arizona, Maggie Hays, Leonidas, Kate Putnam, Delaware, Julia No. 2, Silver Cloud, Lehi Leoti, Bayard, Levy Eagle, Elector, Colefian, Telegraph, and Minnie.

The Leondas and Kate Robinson are loading for New Orleans; Kate Putnam and Grendale, for St. Louis, and the Maggie Hays for Cincinnati and Louisville.

The Reindeer arrived from Steubenville on Sunday evening. Capt. McDonald states that a large quantity of ice ran under the coal at Lisbon, which was lying at that place on Wednesday evening, and lifted her out of the water. After several vain attempts to get off, she was helped out of her troubles by the Friendship and Picket, at an expense of $700. Steubenville is reported as a very dangerous place for boats at present. On Saturday morning when the Reindeer left the following tow boats were there: Lion, Lioness, Picket, Friendship, Dexter and Henry Logan. The Dexter is about five feet above water on the ice.

The following boats are at Cincinnati: Pine Grove, Flying Eagle, St. Charles, Importer, H. L. Gray, Belle Vernon, Starlight, Potomac, Rowena, Silver Spray, Edinburg, Emma No. 2 Lawrence, Armadillo, Leonora No. 2, Shamrock, Chastilion, Mary Irwin, Silver Moon, Emerald, General Lytle, and Maj. Anderson. We are informed of the changes that they are determined to have a bridge at that port. Five different sites have been surveyed for the crossing of the bridge, and its final location established upon. It is to cross the falls of the falls. It is estimated that its entire cost will be about $1,200,000.

The Wheeling Intelligencer of the 5th says: The Undertow of the sunk Argonaut No. 2, opposite the glasswork at New Albany.

At an election held at the office of the Northern Liberties Gas Company, in Philadelphia, on Wednesday, the old Board of Directors was re-elected. At a subsequent meeting the following officers were elected: President, Thos. S. Richards; Treasurer, Thomas H. Groff; Superintendent, Thomas S. Buford; General Freight Agent, Isaac M. Mason. These are, with the exceptions of Superintent, the same officers as last year.

The New Orleans Picayune has the following caution to steamboatmen:

An individual, a short, stout, dark-haired man, who represents himself as the owner of considerable stock, which he wishes to ship up the river, goes to first one boat and then another, and asks as to the trade of freight, after a few interviews he tries to get money advanced to buy feed for his stock, as he pretends he wishes to put on board at the wharf boat, and after getting the first cent, in the two instances he succeeded in thus obtaining, about fifty dollars from the clerk of the boat—one had given him, referring him to the office. Look out for such a stock snipper, is our advice.

The steamers Tennessee and Cumberland were sold at Sheriff's sale in Cairo, on Saturday, to Capt. G. D. Williamson, for $2,600 and $1,000, respectively.

The Ohio river is reported gorged below at Green Island, near Smithland.

The Cincinnati Gazette, of Monday, says: The Arabian, in command of Capt. Cox, arrived at this port yesterday afternoon, from Pittsburgh, on route for St. Louis, after losing out eleven days. She left on December 26th, and fought the ice all the way down. She had on board 300 tons of freight, composed principally of 200 tons of pig iron for the Missouri glass ware, and a large quantity of nails for St. Louis. She brought no freight for this city. Her Lower Mississippi freight will be reshipped at this port. She reports the Telegraph and Ohio No. 3 opposite Hanging Rock. The latter had steam up. The Fleetwood, St. James and Jonas Powell in mouth of Kanawha.

The Middleport (Ohio) Gazette of the 2d inst. says: The Spray, loaded with cotton, and groceries, and bound for Pittsburgh, has been lying ice-bound at our wharf for several days, waiting for navigation to open. The heavy Allegheny ice is still running, and the prospect is by no means favorable for any definite period. The weather is still cold, and the ground is frozen hard. The H. C. Wilson, at this port, reports the Ohio River gorged here for the winter, or until navigation opens.
